

Kevin McCormack
Chief Legal Officer,
Division of Legal Services
Harris Central Appraisal District

Kevin McCormack serves as the Chief Legal Officer in the Division of Legal Services for the Harris Central Appraisal District. This political subdivision of the State of Texas was founded in 1980 and now employs approximately 500 people. Mr. McCormack is responsible for all legal matters involved with the purpose of discovering and appraising property for ad valorem tax purposes for each taxing unit within the boundaries of the district. It serves 500 taxing unit in the United States. Kevin McCormack has been licenses to practice law in the State of Texas since 1988. He worked diligently in various areas of law in private practice before joining the Harris Central Appraisal District in 2019. He is a member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum®, which accepts as members only those trial lawyers who have demonstrated exceptional skill, experience and excellence in advocacy. Fewer than 1% of U.S. lawyers are members. He is also licensed in Tennessee. He is a graduate of the University of Houston Law Center and attended undergrad the University of Wisconsin. He is married and has four boys.

