

Carlos A. Dedios

Attorney

Career Highlights

Carlos Dedios joined Olson & Olson, LLP, with a background in insurance defense litigation and practical experience in International Law. Formerly a lawyer in Mexico City, Carlos earned his Master of Laws (LLM) at the College of William & Mary – Marshall Wythe Law School in Williamsburg, Virginia. Education requirements are different in Mexico than they are in the United States but, through a principle called “reciprocity.” Carlos was able to meet the licensure requirements for the State of Texas and has been licensed to practice here since 2018.

Education

Master of Laws (LLM)

College of William & Mary – Marshall Wythe Law School, 2014

Licentatura (Equivalent of Doctor of Jurisprudence)

Universidad Anahuac, Mexico City, D.F., 2012

Professional Legal Experience

Olson & Olson, LLP | Houston, Texas | 2022 – Present | Attorney

Private Practice | Houston, Texas | 2017 | Associate Attorney

Concentration

At Olson & Olson, Carlos practices ad valorem tax litigation specializing in advising and defending governmental clients. He represents clients in matters and interests regarding property tax, ensuring that statutes and laws are applied correctly, fairly, and consistently. He works closely with commercial and industrial property owners in resolving disputes concerning tax valuation.