

Dennis Winkler

COO
Winkler Public Relations

Dennis is a 35-year veteran of the Public Relations field with experience in front of the camera during crises, as well as behind the scenes counseling management and out-front working with constituents during community outrage.

Dennis' vast experience also includes handling many positive events, such as groundbreakings, open houses and kick offs; events that included the likes of the Prince of Wales, the Governor of Tamaulipas, Mexico, and the Governor of Texas. Dennis has long-standing relationships with leaders on the local, state, regional, and national scene.

Dennis, retired from Shell Oil Company, is professionally Accredited in Public Relations (APR) through the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) and is a member of the PRSA Counselors Academy. He was appointed to the Gulf Coast Rail District board by the Harris County Mayor's and Council's Association, is an elected member of the Bilma Public Utility District board, is a founding board member of the Economic Alliance Houston Port Region and chairs the group's Public Policy Task Force. Dennis is an active member of the Greater Houston Partnership, serving on various committees including federal, state and local relations committees.

Winkler Public Relations is also an active member of the Associated Builders and Contractors, Inc. (ABC)-Greater Houston Chapter, The Deer Park Chamber of Commerce, The Women's Business Enterprise Alliance (WBEA), The Women Contractors Association, Association of Chemical Industry of Texas (ACIT) and Pasadena Chamber of Commerce.
